Healing Pilgrimage of Penance and Reconciliation

Mark Your Calendars for our Healing Pilgrimage to the Santuario de Chimayo on 21 March! Join the Hermanos from our area Moradas, the Knights of Columbus and the parishioners of San Juan Bautista and the Tewa Missions to prayerfully walk as we answer the Call of Archbishop John Wester "to pray for healing among people, for greater love for one another and for reconciliation among those who are alienated from one another."

The Santuario de Chimayo has long been known as a place of pilgrimage, prayer and a place of healing. Let us walk together in harmony and prayer seeking the blessings and the healing of almighty God for our families and our communities. Upon arrival at The Santuario we will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on the holy grounds of the Santuario.

Walk Start time: 7:00AM from San Juan Bautista Parish

Holy Mass begins at 1:00PM

Water and snacks will be provided along the route. If you are unable to walk, please join us in Chimayo at 1:00PM for the Solemn Celebration of The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
